Issue date: November 9, 2023

The referenced application and the July 24, 2023 Change Address or Representation Form have been reviewed by the assigned trademark examining attorney. Applicant must respond timely and completely to the issues below. 15 U.S.C. §1062(b); 37 C.F.R. §§2.62(a), 2.65(a); TMEP §§711, 718.03.

SUMMARY OF ISSUES:

- Section 2(D) Likelihood Of Confusion Refusal
- Section 2(E)(1) Mere Descriptiveness Refusal

SECTION 2(d) - LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION REFUSAL

Registration of the applied-for mark is refused because of a likelihood of confusion with the mark in U.S. Registration No. 5706171. Trademark Act Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); see TMEP §§1207.01 et seq. See the attached registration.

Applicant has applied to register the mark TIGHTIES in standard characters for use in connection with "Compression garments; Medical braces for limbs and joints to support the body during physical activity" in Class 10, "Clothing, namely, shirts, pants, undergarments, and hats" in Class 25, and "Online retail store services featuring clothing, compression garments, and medical braces" in Class 35.

The registered mark is TIGHTINGS with design for use in connection with, in relevant part, "Socks and stockings; tights; leggings" in Class 25 and "online retail store services featuring socks and stockings; online retail store services featuring leggings" in Class 35.

Trademark Act Section 2(d) bars registration of an applied-for mark that is so similar to a registered mark that it is likely consumers would be confused, mistaken, or deceived as to the commercial source of the goodsof the parties. See 15 U.S.C. §1052(d). Likelihood of confusion is determined on a case-by-case basis by applying the factors set forth in In re E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 1361, 177 USPQ 563, 567 (C.C.P.A. 1973) (called the "du Pont factors"). In re i.am.symbolic, llc, 866 F.3d 1315, 1322, 123 USPQ2d 1744, 1747 (Fed. Cir. 2017). Any evidence of record related to those factors need be considered; however, "not all of the DuPont factors are relevant or of similar weight in every case." In re Guild Mortg. Co., 912 F.3d 1376, 1379, 129 USPQ2d 1160, 1162 (Fed. Cir. 2019) (quoting In re Dixie Rests., Inc., 105 F.3d 1405, 1406, 41 USPQ2d 1531, 1533 (Fed. Cir. 1997)).

Although not all du Pont factors may be relevant, there are generally two key considerations in any likelihood of confusion analysis: (1) the similarities between the compared marks and (2) the relatedness of the compared goods. See In re i.am.symbolic, llc, 866 F.3d at 1322, 123 USPQ2d at 1747 (quoting Herbko Int'l, Inc. v. Kappa Books, Inc., 308 F.3d 1156, 1164-65, 64 USPQ2d 1375, 1380 (Fed. Cir. 2002)); Federated Foods, Inc. v. Fort Howard Paper Co., 544 F.2d 1098, 1103, 192 USPQ 24, 29 (C.C.P.A. 1976) ("The fundamental inquiry mandated by [Section] 2(d) goes to the cumulative effect of differences in the essential characteristics of the goods [or services] and differences in the marks."); TMEP §1207.01.

Similarity of the Marks

Marks are compared in their entireties for similarities in appearance, sound, connotation, and commercial impression. Stone Lion Capital Partners, LP v. Lion Capital LLP, 746 F.3d 1317, 1321, 110 USPQ2d 1157, 1160 (Fed. Cir. 2014) (quoting Palm Bay Imps., Inc. v. Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Maison Fondee En 1772, 396 F.3d 1369, 1371, 73 USPQ2d 1689, 1691 (Fed. Cir. 2005)); TMEP §1207.01(b)-(b)(v). "Similarity in any one of these elements may be sufficient to find the marks confusingly similar." In re Inn at St. John's, LLC, 126 USPQ2d 1742, 1746 (TTAB 2018) (citing In re Davia, 110 USPQ2d 1810, 1812 (TTAB 2014)), aff'd per curiam, 777 F. App'x 516, 2019 BL 343921 (Fed. Cir. 2019); TMEP §1207.01(b).

Here, applicant's mark, TIGHTIES, is confusingly similar to the registered mark, TIGHTINGS.

In this case, applicant's and registrant's marks are similar in appearance and sound, despite the difference in the last three letters of the marks, "IES" versus "NGS". Slight differences in the sound of similar marks will not avoid a likelihood of confusion. In re Energy Telecomms. & Elec. Ass'n, 222 USPQ 350, 351 (TTAB 1983); see In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d 1358, 1367, 101 USPQ2d 1905, 1912 (Fed. Cir. 2012). In this case, the marks would be pronounced by consumers very similarly, especially if the consumers are speaking quickly.

Additionally, the marks are also similar in commercial impression since both are a play on the term "TIGHT", meaning "fitting very close to the body". See attached dictionary evidence, and so both evoke the idea of tight fitting items.

Moreover, while the registered mark contains a design element, the applied-for mark appears in standard characters, and a mark in typed or standard characters may be displayed in any lettering style; the rights reside in the wording or other literal element and not in any particular display or rendition. See In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d 1358, 1363, 101 USPQ2d 1905, 1909 (Fed. Cir. 2012); In re Mighty Leaf Tea, 601 F.3d 1342, 1348, 94 USPQ2d 1257, 1260 (Fed. Cir. 2010); 37 C.F.R. §2.52(a); TMEP §1207.01(c)(iii). Thus, a mark presented with a design element generally will not avoid likelihood of confusion with a mark in typed or standard characters because the word portion could be presented in the same manner of display. See, e.g., In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d at 1363, 101 USPQ2d at 1909; Squirtco v. Tomy Corp., 697 F.2d 1038, 1041, 216 USPQ 937, 939 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (stating that "the argument concerning a difference in type style is not viable where one party asserts rights in no particular display").

Therefore, because of the similarity in sound, appearance and commercial impression of the terms "TIGHTIES" and "TIGHTINGS", the marks are confusingly similar for likelihood of confusion purposes.

Ultimately, when purchasers call for the goods of applicant and registrant using "TIGHTIES" and "TIGHTINGS", they are likely to be confused as to the source of those goods by the similarities between the marks. Thus, the marks are confusingly similar.

Relatedness of the Goods and Services

The goods and services are compared to determine whether they are similar, commercially related, or travel in the same trade channels. See Coach Servs., Inc. v. Triumph Learning LLC, 668 F.3d 1356, 1369-71, 101 USPQ2d 1713, 1722-23 (Fed. Cir. 2012); Herbko Int'l, Inc. v. Kappa Books, Inc., 308 F.3d 1156, 1165, 64 USPQ2d 1375, 1381 (Fed. Cir. 2002); TMEP §§1207.01, 1207.01(a)(vi).

Here, applicant's "Compression garments; Medical braces for limbs and joints to support the body during physical activity" in Class 10, "Clothing, namely, shirts, pants, undergarments, and hats" in Class 25, and "On-line retail store services featuring clothing, compression garments, and medical braces" in Class 35 are closely related to registrant's "Socks and stockings; tights; leggings" in Class 25 and "online retail store services featuring socks and stockings; online retail store services featuring tights; online retail store services featuring leggings" in Class 35.

The attached Internet evidence, consisting of screenshots from CW-X. CEP, Hue, Elastique, Dr. Comfort, and SupCare, establishes that the same entity commonly manufactures, produces, or provides the relevant goods and services and markets the goods and services under the same mark. Thus, applicant's and registrant's goods and services are considered related for likelihood of confusion purposes. See, e.g., In re Davey Prods. Pty Ltd., 92 USPQ2d 1198, 1202-04 (TTAB 2009); In re Toshiba Med. Sys. Corp., 91 USPQ2d 1266, 1268-69, 1271-72 (TTAB 2009).

Ultimately, when purchasers encounter the goods and services of applicant and registrant, they are likely to be confused as to the source of the goods and services by the commercial relationship between them in the marketplace. Thus, the goods are closely related.

Therefore, because the marks are confusingly similar and the goods and services are closely related, purchasers encountering these goods and services are likely to believe, mistakenly, that they emanate from a common source. Accordingly, there is a likelihood of confusion and registration is refused pursuant to Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act.

Response to Section 2(d) - Likelihood of Confusion Refusal

Although applicant's mark has been refused registration, applicant may respond to the refusal by submitting evidence and arguments in support of registration.

Applicant should note the following additional ground for refusal.

SECTION 2(e)(1) - MERE DESCRIPTIVENESS REFUSAL

Registration is refused because the applied-for mark merely describes a feature or characteristic of applicant's goods and services. Trademark Act Section 2(e)(1), 15 U.S.C. §1052(e)(1); see TMEP §§1209.01(b), 1209.03 et seq.

A mark is merely descriptive if it describes an ingredient, quality, characteristic, function, feature, purpose, or use of an applicant's goods and services. TMEP §1209.01(b); see, e.g., In re TriVita, Inc., 783 F.3d 872, 874, 114 USPQ2d 1574, 1575 (Fed. Cir. 2015) (quoting In re Oppedahl & Larson LLP, 373 F.3d 1171, 1173, 71 USPQ2d 1370, 1371 (Fed. Cir. 2004)); In re Steelbuilding.com, 415 F.3d 1293, 1297, 75 USPQ2d 1420, 1421 (Fed. Cir. 2005) (citing Estate of P.D. Beckwith, Inc. v. Comm'r of Patents, 252 U.S. 538, 543 (1920)).

Here, applicant has applied to register the mark TIGHTIES for use in connection with "Compression garments; Medical braces for limbs and joints to support the body during physical activity" in Class 10, "Clothing, namely, shirts, pants, undergarments, and hats" in Class 25, and "On-line retail store services featuring clothing, compression garments, and medical braces" in Class 35. The wording "TIGHTIES", a play on the word "TIGHT", meaning "fitting very close to the body", is also a plural of the term "TIGHTY", which is commonly used to refer to a type of underwear, immediately conveys that applicant's compression items, clothing goods, and retail store services are or offer undergarments and clothes that fit closely to the body.

Moreover, the attached evidence from Intrigue Ink, Whitey Tighties, Bucket, Tadah Patterns, and Juv Activewear demonstrates that the term "TIGHTIES" is commonly used with goods and services similar to applicant's to indicate that an entity offers underwear as well as form fitting clothing.

Ultimately, when purchasers encounter applicant's goods using the mark "TIGHTIES", they will immediately understand the mark as describing as feature or characteristic or applicant's goods and services. Therefore, the applied-for mark is merely descriptive, and registration is refused pursuant to Section 2(e)(1) of the Trademark Act.

Response to Section 2(e)(1) - Mere Descriptiveness Refusal

Although applicant's mark has been refused registration, applicant may respond to the refusal by submitting evidence and arguments in support of registration.

Although an amendment to the Supplemental Register would be an appropriate response to this refusal in an application based on Trademark Act Section 1(a) or 44, such a response is not appropriate in the present case. The instant application was filed under Section 1(b) and is not eligible for registration on the Supplemental Register until an acceptable amendment to allege use meeting the requirements of 37 C.F.R. §2.76 has been timely filed. 37 C.F.R. §2.47(d); TMEP §§816.02, 1102.03.

If applicant files an acceptable allegation of use and also amends to the Supplemental Register, the application effective filing date will be the date applicant met the minimum filing requirements under 37 C.F.R. §2.76(c) for an amendment to allege use. TMEP §§816.02, 1102.03; see 37 C.F.R. §2.75(b). In addition, the undersigned trademark examining attorney will conduct a new search of the USPTO records for conflicting marks based on the later application filing date. TMEP §§206.01, 1102.03.

RESPONSE GUIDELINES

For this application to proceed, applicant must explicitly address each refusal in this Office action. For a refusal, applicant may provide written arguments and evidence against the refusal, and may have other response options if specified above. #### Saved my long run recovery

These are a pain to get on, but provide wonderful relief after long runs. I felt that they help reduce fatigue and aided recovery. They allow me to work out the next day with little pain or fatigue.

Good compression, but I wish they came in long lengths. If they didn't have the CEP logo on the leg, I would wear them with skirts more as an alternative to non-support tights.

Although hard to don, the included pamphlet includes great advice for putting on. Once on, I didn't want to take them off. They are a bit sheer with texture differences at different parts. Kinda like pantyhose.

Great tank, which there was a little more bead coverage

Have enjoyed wearing this. The beads are on the back only -- it would be been great if there were more beads on the sides , etc.

NO COMPRESSION BAMBOO

Bamboo is your go-to material if you want an extra soft and breathable sock. The fibers can contain up to 55% more moisture than e.g. cotton, which makes it better at keeping the skin dry. In terms of sustainability, bamboo is better for the environment than other plantfibers, because it grows faster and does not need the addition of pesticides to grow.

United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

USPTO OFFICIAL NOTICE

Office Action (Official Letter) has issued on November 9, 2023 for U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 97782804

A USPTO examining attorney has reviewed your trademark application and issued an Office action. You must respond to this Office action to avoid your application abandoning. Follow the steps below.

- (1) Read the Office action. This email is NOT the Office action.
- (2) Respond to the Office action by the deadline using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS). Your response, or extension request, must be received by the USPTO on or before 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time of the last day of the response deadline. Otherwise, your application will be abandoned. See the Office action itself regarding how to respond.
- (3) Direct general questions about using USPTO electronic forms, the USPTO website, the application process, the status of your application, and whether there are outstanding deadlines to the Trademark Assistance Center (TAC).

After reading the Office action, address any question(s) regarding the specific content to the USPTO examining attorney identified in the Office action.

GENERAL GUIDANCE

- Check the status of your application periodically in the Trademark Status & Document Retrieval (TSDR) database to avoid missing critical deadlines.
- Update your correspondence email address to ensure you receive important USPTO notices about your application.
- Beware of trademark-related scams. Protect yourself from people and companies that may try to take financial advantage of you. Private companies may call you and pretend to be the USPTO or may send you communications that resemble official USPTO documents to trick you. We will never request your credit card number or social security number over the phone. Verify the correspondence originated from us by using your serial number in our database, TSDR, to confirm that it appears under the "Documents" tab, or contact the Trademark Assistance Center.
- Hiring a U.S.-licensed attorney. If you do not have an attorney and are not required to have one under the trademark rules, we encourage you to hire a U.S.-licensed attorney specializing in trademark law to help guide you through the registration process. The USPTO examining attorney is not your attorney and cannot give you legal advice, but rather works for and represents the USPTO in trademark matters.
